THE NEXT MIAMI

In Edgewater, developer Melo Group has commenced vertical construction on the twin-tower Urban22 project, according to photos by Ryan RC Rea.

Urban22 will include:

- 441 apartments
- 529 parking spaces
- 7,168 square feet of commercial space
- 5,629 square feet of office space

Melo Group has previously said that a priority of the project's design is to be pedestrian friendly and human scale.

Features include a hidden parking garage and "inviting" public sidewalks with landscaping, hardscaping, and other improvements.
